Strategies, plans and policies

- Public consultation to update universal digital access policy — Sunday Times, 10 October 2026 SOUTH AFRICA

South Africa's universal service agency is consulting on whether to update the 2010 determination that defines universal access and universal service. Its discussion document sets out three options and leans towards a targeted revision; it creates no new funding or licence obligations. Also under Access to services.
- Mozambique consults Sofala stakeholders on National Cybersecurity Strategy 2026–2030 — Tech Review Africa, 10 October 2026 MOZAMBIQUE

Mozambique's ICT institute held a consultation in Beira on 6 October to collect provincial input on the proposed national cybersecurity strategy for 2026 to 2030. Also under Cybersecurity.
- Intelligence artificielle en Afrique francophone, Un cadre commun en quête d'application — SenePlus, 10 October 2026 BENIN BURKINA FASO CÔTE D'IVOIRE GUINEA MALI SENEGAL WEST AFRICA

A long read on the AI guidelines six francophone West African countries published together: seven principles and five ways of putting them into effect, with formal national adoption still to come. It notes that the size of the proposed AI fund is stated inconsistently. Also under AI, Public debate and participation in policymaking and Data protection.
- Government moves to end fragmented digital systems — The Herald, 10 October 2026 ZIMBABWE

Zimbabwe's ICT minister said the government is working to end fragmented digital systems across public bodies, and called for common standards so that citizens are not asked for the same information twice. Also under Data Exchange.
- Data Use Partnership (DUP) – Ministry of Health services page — Ministry of Health, United Republic of Tanzania, 10 October 2026 TANZANIA

Tanzania's health ministry describes its Data Use Partnership, a programme run with an international partner that has set up a digital health centre, a health enterprise architecture and an administrative-area registry covering more than 12,000 villages. Also under Sectoral management information systems, Registries and Standards.

Legislation and regulation

A territorial administration ministry delegation consulted local officials in Avé 1 commune on 8 October as part of the review of Togo's 2009 civil status law. Participants raised the difficulty of deciding where a birth should be declared. Also under Registries.

- Cybersecurity Governance and Unauthorised System Access in Tanzanian Local Government Authorities: A Doctrinal Critique — East African Journal of Law and Ethics (East African Nature & Science Organization), 10 October 2026 TANZANIA

A legal study finds that the security duties in Tanzania's e-Government Act are not tied to accountability in local government authorities, and that audits keep finding unauthorised access to council systems. Also under Cybersecurity and Digitalisation of sub-national government.

- Combating Cybercrime and Fraud in Tanzania: A Critical Assessment of the Legal Framework and Enforcement Challenges — East African Journal of Law and Ethics (East African Nature & Science Organization), 10 October 2026 TANZANIA

A second legal study judges Tanzania's Cybercrimes Act sound on paper and weakly enforced against mobile-money fraud. It calls for judicial warrants before communications are intercepted. Also under Cybersecurity and Digital Payments and Fintech.

Data protection

- RDC : QUI GARANTIT LA CONTINUITÉ DE NOS DONNÉES LORSQU'UNE PLATEFORME NUMÉRIQUE NOUS FERME L'ACCÈS A SES SERVICES ? — Gachette d'Afrique, 10 October 2026 DRC

An economist's opinion piece starts from Google One refusing subscription renewals in the DRC and argues for data portability, trust standards for cloud services and enforcement of the 2023 digital code. Also under Public debate and participation in policymaking, Digital sovereignty and Access to services.

- Nigeria Needs No AI Law. It Already Has One — The Liberalist, 10 October 2026 NIGERIA

An opinion piece argues that Nigeria's data protection act and its implementing directive already regulate automated decisions, and points to the data protection commission's fines as evidence that a separate AI law is not needed. Also under AI.
