Governance

Strategies, plans and policies

- The WOAN may be dead, but open access is not — ITWeb South Africa, 9 October 2026 SOUTH AFRICA

An industry opinion piece argues that South Africa's withdrawal of the wireless open access network direction leaves its principles in place: leasing of networks, wholesale capacity for other licensees and rural access. The author's case is for better use of infrastructure already built. Also under Connectivity.

- Tchad : Haliki Choua Mahamat dévoile les grands chantiers de la poste — Le N'Djam Post, 9 October 2026

CHAD

Chad's telecoms minister set out a transformation of the state postal operator: a postal bank in the medium term, an integrated payment platform and post offices as one-stop counters. Its virtual-operator and internet-provider licences are to be put to use; no budget or date was given. Also under Digital Payments and Fintech and Connectivity.

- Senegal's new ARTP chief sets out priorities for next-generation regulation — Tech Review Africa, 9 October 2026 SENEGAL

Senegal's new telecoms regulator chief said at his handover that he will move the authority toward data-led regulation, with real-time measurement of service quality. He named 5G, cloud, satellite broadband and digital finance as what it must anticipate. Also under Connectivity.

- SA needs ICT industry redesign – Digital Council Africa president — Connecting Africa, 9 October 2026

SOUTH AFRICA

The president of Digital Council Africa told a Johannesburg conference that South Africa's ICT industry needs a full redesign of its regulation and physical infrastructure for AI. He said the country has very few specialists investigating and prosecuting cybercrime. Also under AI and ICT Industry.

- Mozambique targets 95% broadband coverage by 2030 — ITWeb Africa, 9 October 2026 MOZAMBIQUE

Mozambique's regulator validated its Internet for All strategy, which targets 95% broadband coverage by 2030, 12 million mobile internet subscribers and at least 60% of schools connected. It cited a programme to subsidise about 280,000 internet-enabled devices. Also under Connectivity, Access to services and Digital divides.

- Gouvernement ouvert : Madagascar à trois points du seuil requis — Midi Madagasikara, 9 October 2026
