Governance

Strategies, plans and policies

- Numérique : une 'Gabon Digital Week' au coeur de l'innovation — L'Union - Sonapresse, 24 October 2026 GABON

  Gabon's digital economy ministry announced a Gabon Digital Week at the Palais des Congrès in Libreville from 26 to 30 October 2026, under the president's patronage. The programme includes a government seminar on the national digitalisation strategy, presentation of the Gabon Digital programme, the official start of a 5G pilot with Moov Africa Gabon Telecom and Airtel Gabon, and an African Union specialised technical committee where some fifteen ministers are to draft a Libreville Declaration ahead of ITU meetings in Doha. Also under Connectivity and Other GovTech and e-Gov.

Regional collaboration

- ATU advances IPv6 testbed preparations in Botswana — Tech Review Africa, 24 October 2026 BOTSWANA

  The African Telecommunications Union moved its IPv6 testbed for Botswana forward after a due-diligence visit to the regulator BOCRA, which has picked a university by tender to host it. The testbed is part of an ICANN-funded ATU programme under which 52 specialists from 26 African countries have been trained; the visit coincided with a Smart Africa and CRASA workshop in Gaborone on 20 to 22 October on cutting roaming costs in southern Africa. Also under Connectivity and Training and skills.

Data Storage

- Benedict Oramah: Africa Must Build Its Own AI Models, Not Just Supply the Data — THISDAYLIVE, 24 October 2026 NIGERIA AFRICA

In an interview after the IMF and World Bank meetings, former Afreximbank president Benedict Oramah, now running the strategy firm Marob, argued that Africa should build its own AI models rather than supply data to foreign firms. He said data centres need power the continent lacks, proposed technology parks with concentrated energy supply, and said Nigeria's cheap gas lets it sell electricity at prices that would draw investors; he added that only private capital can close an infrastructure gap he puts at about US$100 billion a year. Also under AI and Digital sovereignty.

DPI

Digital Payments and Fintech

- Exim Bank Uganda launches TerraPay-powered global payment solution — Tech Review Africa, 24 October 2026 UGANDA

  Exim Bank Uganda launched Exim Global Pay in Kampala, a cross-border payment service that connects its individual and business customers to TerraPay's international network. It is meant for payments to overseas suppliers and for personal costs abroad such as school fees, health care and family support, and spares the bank from building its own bilateral links; no fees, volumes or corridors were given.
