- UNGA81: Nigeria highlights data protection and digital infrastructure progress at UNGA81 — Tech Review Africa, 24 September 2026 NIGERIA

At UNGA81, Nigeria Data Protection Commission head Vincent Olatunji said personal data used in social protection programmes and social registers must follow the safeguards of the Nigeria Data Protection Act 2023, and called for African datasets built with proper rights protections. Communications minister Bosun Tijani cited the BRIDGE broadband project, which he said is expected to reach more than 20 million Nigerians. Also under Registries and Connectivity.

- Senegal: DAF acknowledges cyberattack, assures no data was compromised — Benin Web TV, 24 September 2026 SENEGAL

The director of Senegal's file-automation department (DAF), Ibrahima Dieng, confirmed that the February 2026 incident which halted national identity-card production was a cyberattack, but said the identity-card and electoral files were intact and no personal data was compromised. The Interior Ministry had earlier called it only an incident; a group's claim to have taken 139 terabytes of biometric and immigration data remains unverified. Also under Cybersecurity and Digital Identity and CRVS.

- NDPC Boss Outlines Strategy for Africa's Digital Future — Voice of Nigeria, 24 September 2026 NIGERIA

In a keynote at a Vivacity Development event on the sidelines of UNGA81, Nigeria Data Protection Commission head Vincent Olatunji named regulatory alignment, data sovereignty and trust as the three foundations of Africa's digital economy. He argued for compatible data-protection rules across African jurisdictions and described data governance as economic infrastructure. Also under Regional collaboration.

- Kenya signs AI deal with Anthropic as Ruto leads UN delegation in New York — Pulse Kenya, 24 September 2026 KENYA

Kenya and Anthropic signed a Joint Declaration in New York on 22 September covering AI skills, research, responsible public-sector use, AI safety and evaluation, and applications in education and health. Pilots, research and training with Kenyan institutions are to follow, governed by Kenyan law including on data protection and cybersecurity. Also under AI and MoUs and other agreements.
