He put that territory at about 90 localities and 24 million people, figures that are not independently verified.

Digital Payments and Fintech

OUTAGE OF THE DOMINANT MOBILE PAYMENT APPLICATION

- Sudan pound hits 7,000 as banking system falters - The Sudan Times — The Sudan Times, 3 September 2026

  Bankak, Sudan's main mobile payment app run by the Bank of Khartoum, failed with other digital banking platforms on 2 September 2026 as the pound reached 7,000 to the US dollar on the parallel market. The bank apologised and said its teams were restoring service. Bakeries, petrol stations and other businesses turned away customers who could not pay electronically.

- حملة لمقاطعة تطبيق بنكك.. دعوات لسحب الأموال وتحويل العملاء إلى بنوك سودانية أخرى — Akher Khabar, 9 September 2026

  A social-media campaign in Sudan urged Bank of Khartoum customers to boycott its Bankak app, withdraw their money and move to Family Bank, Savings Bank or Omdurman National Bank, citing repeated app outages. Posts also claimed the bank had stopped transfers to other banks and alleged Emirati shareholding; the report notes neither claim carries independent documentation or official confirmation.

- Bankak outages disrupt Sudan's digital payments and markets — Dabanga Radio TV Online, 10 September 2026

  Repeated outages on Bank of Khartoum's Bankak app and Faisal Islamic Bank's Fawry service disrupted transfers, payments and trade in Sudan between late August and early September 2026, pushing demand back to cash, Radio Dabanga reported on 10 September. A banking expert said some traders now accept only cash; an IT consultant called on the Central Bank of Sudan to lead a national interoperable payment system.

- لا وصول للأموال".. عندما يتعطل أهم تطبيق "بنكي" بالسودان — Al Arabiya, 9 October 2026

  Outages of Bank of Khartoum's Bankak app left Sudanese customers unable to reach or transfer money during cash and fuel shortages, Al Arabiya reported on 9 October 2026. Sudan's energy and oil ministry blamed fuel-station queues partly on slow banking apps, and a speaker warned of losses to government collection through the Eesaly system. The bank apologised and said its teams were working round the clock.

FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT FOR MOBILE POS REVENUE-COLLECTION DEVICES

- اتفاق جديد لتوريد أجهزة تحصيل إلكتروني محمولة — Suda News, 11 September 2026
